7. Between 1630 and 1750 on 20 September, a large column passed through Falkensee. It consisted of 14 JS-3 tanks, 4 JSU-122 guns, 8 rocket launchers, 6 mortars, 18 x 57-mm AT guns, 24 armored personnel carriers with soldiers, 14 BA-64 armored scout cars, approximately 40 sidecar motorcycles, 3 radio cars, 9 field kitchens and approximately 25X1 45 trucks including some carrying soldiers or equipment.

the direction of Doeberitz and proceeded toward Schoenwalde. Additional columns reportedly came from the direction of Doeberitz and proceeded toward Rrieselang via Finkenkrug on the same day. Between 1600 and 1900, tanks and guns were seen on Highway No 103, en route toward Nauen-Boernicke. Between 0030 and 0230 on 21 September, low-level attacks were conducted in the area northwest of Falkensee, presumably by ground attack planes. At 0700 on 21 September, vehicles and steel helmets were reportedly fitted with symbols in the Pagren-Brieselang area. At 1100 on 21 September, the Doeberitz post was only lightly occupied.

8. At 1630 on 20 September, the following column left through the southern gate of the barracks installation west of Olympisches Dorf (2065) in Doeberitz and proceeded toward Wustermark:

12 T-34/85 tanks, 30 six-wheel armored personnel carriers, an undetermined
number of trucks towing AA guns of 37 and 76.2 mm, several trucks towing 120-mm mortars, approximately 40 trucks including some mounting heavy machine guns and others carrying soldiers, and 4 field kitchens.
Some of the personnel carriers mounted heavy machine guns or twin-barreled AA guns. Soldiers observed wore red-bordered black epaulets. At 1645, the following columns left the installation through the northern gate and proceeded toward Finkenkrug-Brieselang:
approximately 40 T-34/85 tanks towing 120-mm mortars, approximately 90 trucks with soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and equipment, 4 field ktichens and several sedans occupied by a general and field-grade officers and Some of the armored personnel carriers mounted heavy machine guns or twin-barreled AA guns. 5
